NOTICE

This notice is being provided as a result of the filing of an application for permanent alien employment certification for the position of Assistant Professor in the School of Historical, Philosophical and Religious Studies, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Tempe, AZ.

Any person may provide documentary evidence bearing on the application to the Certifying Officer of the U.S. Department of Labor.

The address is:

Certifying Officer
U.S. Department of Labor
Employment and Training
Administration Processing Center
Harris Tower
233 Peachtree Street, Suite 410
Atlanta, GA 30303

Job Title: Assistant Professor

Job Location: School of Historical, Philosophical and Religious Studies
975 S. Myrtle Ave.
Tempe, AZ

Job Duties: Research and teach upper and lower level undergraduate courses as well as graduate seminars, including introduction to Islam, Islamic Civilization, Islam and the Quran, Islamic Philosophy, and various thematic courses based on their area interest. Be a scholar of Islam who can both fill the department’s program’s gap in the study of the classical Islamic and Arabic traditions, and add to the department’s faculty’s expertise in the anthropology of Islam and Islam in the contemporary world. Mentorship to undergraduate, MA, and PhD students. Participate in appropriate professional service.

Job Requirements: Ph.D. in Islamic Studies, History, Philosophy, Literature, Anthropology, Area Studies, Theology or related fields with expertise in classical Arabic and Islamic traditions. Articulate a research vision beyond dissertation work, which includes research and publication plans beyond dissertation, and the significance and relevance of research project. Ability to fluently read and translate classical Arabic, fluency in English to teach and publish scholarly works.