

Undergraduate Research Opportunity

PROJECT

Community Art, Community History

Prof. Catherine
O'Donnell

| | |
|------------------------|---|
| Hours required p/week: | 6 |
| Credits anticipated: | 2 |

This project, "Community Art, Community History," will offer students the opportunity to work with Herberger Art and Design Corps to research the history of a community group and participate in the development of a community arts project reflecting that history.

TEMPE

STUDENT

Research assistant's duties:

The student will research, collaborate, and think creatively about what history means to a local community group

Required skills or qualifications:

Creativity, diligence and an ability to collaborate

Skills student will acquire:

The ability to research local history, incorporate distinctive perspectives on history into narrative and art, and collaborate with artists